

When locked stored information is played back modulating the live set. When editing, modulation is temporarily stopped (unlocked). Pressing the "Lock!" button records new changes and restarts modulation (locked).

When unlocked modulation is suspended. You can use Live as if no StepLocker is present. In unlocked mode changes to parameters in the live set are learned by StepLocker as new impulse return-values.